This is a more subjective than some of the other posts from this competition. The first thing that stands out for me in watching video is a game that I haven't seen for a long time. I have seen footage but it is not likely to be used in any club training or matches. It was an example of the development of soccer in Toowoomba. There were years when Toowoomba played in the National Soccer League but it did not last. According to Wikipedia the soccer players had meetings and formed a club to play in the East and South East Junior League. East Juniors are hosted at the Southside Oval and so soccer was played on the practice pitch. It would be very hard to play soccer on that oval so they moved to the Toowoomba Showgrounds. In this video they are playing teams from the West, and are winning. A nice crowd turns up to watch this game. That was probably the last time the club played at the Southside Oval. The soccer club started to really develop around the turn of the century and the Southside oval did not suit their changing needs. In some ways it is similar to what happened to rugby league at the Showgrounds. They moved to the Donnybrook stadium and with both Toowoomba's rugby league and soccer clubs doing well, they both moved up a level. The rugby league club were successful in competitions and eventually got a feeder club into the NRL. The soccer club had similar problems because the St Mary's Catholic College and the Toowoomba Grammar School boys played on the oval. The soccer club had
